CLEVELAND'S QUIET DAY

WELL PLEASED WITH THE OUTLOOK

strong Hopes of Carrying the Northwestern States - Many Prominent Callers. Other Political News.

New York, Oct. 1 .- Ex-President Cleveland spent a rather quiet morning, the only persons of special political promisence who called on him being Chairman Dickinson, of the national campaign comminee, and Lawrence Gardner, president of the Association of Democratic Clubs. Mr. Dickinson did not remain long, and when he came away said to the reporters that interest in national politics seemed to be giving away for the time to local politics. Mr. Gardner's visit was suppased to be in reference to the invitation Mr. Cleveland to speak at the conven-on of the Democratic clubs to be held in as city next week. It was stated that Ir Cleveland had not decided in regard

MAY CALL ON SENATOR HILL.

Senator Hill is still at the Hotel Nornandie, where he received a number of visitors this morning. It is understood that he will speak at the convention here next week. It was rumored that Mr. Cleveland would call on Senator Hill this afternoon.

The political conditions in all parts of the country have been laid before Mr. Cleveland by the Democratic national campaign committee, and he is said to be well pleased with the outlook, especially in this State and the Northwestern States, which the Democrats hope to carry. He told Don M. Dickinson yesterday that he considered Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota and Illinois de-batable ground, and he expressed great pleasure with the work of the Chicago branch headquarters.

REGRES AT THE THIRD TICKET. At Democratic national headquarters to-day there was a feeling of regret. The Anti-Snappers of this city have decided to run an independent local ticket. Chairman Harrity and his associates ill advised it, and their opinion is that this action will put help the national ticket. Steaking of the local situation, General Den M. Dickinson said that Tammany Hall was a powerful factor in this campaina. Referring to Richard Croker's statement that the bolting ticket would endanger the Legislature and the United States senatorship, Mr. Dickinson's comment was that Mr. Croker was a level-headed man. Black, president of the National Association of Democratic Clabs, is expected to arrive to-night. It is stated that he will personally call upon Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Hill and urze them to accept the invitations previously extended them to address the meeting of clabs to be held at the Acdemy of Music, Tuesday next. It is said that is not an attempt to bring Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Hill upon the same platorm for effect, Both men are invited because they are recognized as leading Democratas.

Third Party Meeting-An Argument.

Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 1.—Special.—The People's party had a rally at Friend's warehouse this morning. There were about thirty or forty colored people pres-cut, besides a crowd of white Democrats, who wanted to get a chance to size up General Field as a Third party speaker. Mr. S. C. Goggin called the meeting to order and introduced Mr. T. E. Cobb, who is trying to beat Paul Edmunds for Congress. Mr. Cobb consumed about Congress. Mr. Cobb consumed about a half hour of time, closing by introduc-ing Major R. V. Gaines. Major Gaines spoke for perhaps three-quarters of an hour. At several points during his speech somebody would shout "Hurrah for Cleveland," and the Democratic majority present would respond with a ringing cheer. One man called out from the rear of the room to Major Gaines: "Tell us something about that letter." The Major replied: "If you will come up here or meet me anywhere else I will tell you meet me anywhere else I will tell you all about that letter, but I don't propose

Buxton told me that the report is a lie out of the whole cloth, and that he believed that the Democrats would carry the State for Cleve-land with a solid Democratic congres-

A Terrible Triple Wreck.

A Terrible Triple Wreck.

Landsdown, N. J., Oct. 1.—The worst coal and freight wreck in the history of the Easton and Amboy division of the Lehigh railroad occurred early this morning. A local train drawn by ergine 412 was ordered to wait at a siding near here until the second section of the fast freight passed, going in the same direction. The engineer of the coal train pulled off the siding and the first section of the fast freight passed, and was ran into by the second section. This threw some of the second section. This threw some of the wrecked cars into the eastbound track, where they were dashed into by engine 380, with an eastbound coal train, causing a triple wreck and blocking the road completely. Engineer Jordan Wer heiser, of the second section of fast freight, was instantly killed and Brake man William Dietrich severely injured. All traffic will be blocked to-day.

Trying to Nullify the New Ballot Law. Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 1.—There has been of late some excitement in political circles in regard to the development of a plan to nullify the Australian ballot supreme court, declaring the legislative apportionment of 1885 unconstitutional, appertionment of 1885 unconstitutional, has not been yet rendered. It is now given out that just as soon as the court renders its decision that the apportionment act is void, a sait will be filed to set aside the Australian ballot law, on the ground that the Legislature of 1889, the ground that the Legislature of 1883, by which the law was enacted, and which was elected under the apportionment of 1885, was an illegal body under the de-cision of the court. If the apportion-ment suit now pending related only to the act of 1891, no such question could be raised, for the Legislature has been elected under its precisions, but there elected under its provisions; but three be raised, for no Legislature has been der the act of 1885, and if these were unconstitutional bodies, every act which they passed can be nullified.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 1.-When the news that the charge of treason had been brought against the advisory committee reached Homestead last night it shock-ed the people. The locked-out men were ed the people. The locked-out men were puzzled, and declared they did not know what it meant. They were unanimous in the belief that this thing of entering charges had gone too far, saying that a charge of freason reflected on their stand-ing as American citizens and against their patriotism. Altogether, it was roundly denounced. It was believed by the men that the object of arrest is to get the leaders out of the way so that the others will go to work. It was learned at noon to-day that war-rants have been issued by the Carnegie Sized Company against the members of Sicel Company against the members of the strikers' advisory board at the Union Mills in this city. The charge preferred is that of conspiracy and treason. None of the members of the board have hereto-fore been called upon to answer charges of violation in connection with the pres ent strike.

London, Oct. 1.—The Conservatives are boiling over with rage at the decision of the Government to abanden Aganda, and they propose to make a stiff fight on the question in Parliament. They claim that Mr. Gladstone and Lord Roseberry are actuated by a desire to injure the East Africa Company, because that company is largely composed of adherents of Lord Salisbury, and they predict that the abandonment of Uganda will be the first step toward a general withdrawal of Gov ernment protection from the colonies in that vicinity.

THE JUDGE RESERVES DECISION.

The Matter Comes Up Before Judge Edwards for a Final Hearing-The Arguments Submitted.

Hudson, N. Y., Oct. 1 .- The matter of application of E. Ellery Anderson for a mandamus compelling Labor Commissioner Peck to produce in court the private papers from which he compiled his report on the tariff, came up before Justice Edwards this morning, ex-Senator Norton Chase appearing for Mr. Anderson and Mr. Edward Meegan for the Commissioner of Labor. It was a special term of the supreme court, and this was the first actual hearing yet given. The original order directing Mr. Peck to show cause why a peremptory writ of mandamus should not be issued was granted by Justice Edwards and was returnable at a special term held in Kingston by Judge Fursman. A postponement was effected and the case was before Judge Machania (1997) fore Jutice Mayham on Tuesday last He declined to hear it on the ground that Mr. Justice Edwards issued the preliminary order and should hear the

THE MONETARY CONFERENCE.

The International Body Will Probably Meet in Dresden or Brussels.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 1 .- Since the return of Secretary Foster there has been a revival of the correspondence with Great Britain upon the question of the time and place of meeting of the international Moneplace of meeting of the international Mone-tary Conterence. As has been stated, both the Salisbury and Gladstone governments, for local reasons, deemed it best that the conference should not meet in London. Other places were suggested, and Minister Lincoln has cabled Secretary Foster that England's reply to the suggestions of the United States may be expected Monday. If the reply comes the formal announce-ment will doubtless then be made. While nothing definits, of course, is ment will doubtless then be made.

While nothing definite, of course, is known concerning the matter outside of official circles, the impression prevails that the conference will be called to meet at either Brusseis or Dresden on the 21st of Noyember. Secretary Foster, of the Treasury Dopartment, expresses much confidence that the conference will result in something of a practical benefit to the countries participating. He has recently received advices that powerful foreign influences are at work, which will aid in bringing about these practical results of the conference. He says he is much encouraged over the prospects.

Manison, W.s., Oct. 1.—The Supre Court this morning denied the motion

Senator Vilas, attorney for the Secretary of State for "leave to interpose an answer" in the legislative spportionment case, and ordered judgment entered for the orator, thus finally closing the case against the Secretary of State and in favor of the relator, C. F. Lamb. An extra session of the legislature to enact a law will undoubtedly be called at an early day.

New York, Oct. 1.—Captain M. P.
Smith, of the firm of Smith & Co., 41 South street, ship brokers, who had chartered the bark William Hales to convey a general cargo from this port on July 11th to Cape Town, and who received two days ago from the consul at Cape Town news that Captain George P. Buckley and his wife were murdered at sea, received a telegram from the consul that the murder was committed by the steward of the vessel and that he afterwards committed suicide. The steward was a Chinaman, named Al Foo, and he had shipped on the Hales for the first time.

The Kalser's Ear, Again.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—Emperor William's ear is again the subject of diplomatic discus-sion. From Paris comes the report that the sion. From Paris comes the report that the Emperor's physicians propose an operation similar to the one performed at Hubertus-sock last spring. The Emperor suffers severe pains in the hoad, has a painful inflammation of chords of the neck below the ear, and is nervous beyond the sudurance of his family. It is said that the operation will be performed at Rominton.

A Banker Under Arrest.

Berlin, Oct. 1.—Augustus F. H. Schults, a well-known banker, has surrendered himself to the police and has been placed under arrest. Schultz has failed with heavy liabilities, exceeding one million and a half marks. His arrest had been ordered on the charge of having brought about the failure by fraudulent operations, and fearing an arrest he concluded to surrender himself.

ST. PETERBUEG, Oct. 1.—The mail train from Charkoff to Nickoljew was stopped by robbers near Kroka and plundered of half a million roubles in money and a large quantity of valuables, baggage, letters, &c., that were being conveyed by mail. There is no trace of the robbers, and it is suspected that the railroad officials had something to do with the affair.

The Columbus Colebration.

New YORK, Oct. 1.—A joint meeting of the banquet and reception committee of the Columbus celebration was held to-day. Of the 850 seats at the banquet invitations for 725 had been accepted, it was reported. Boxes will be reserved for President Harrison, ex-President Cieveland and ex-President Hayes. Small-Pox Epidemic in Mexico.

CHIRUARUA, MEX., Oct. 1.-The most serious small-pox epidemic ever known in this city is now raging. Many deaths from the malady are reported daily. The disease is in its severest type. Efforts to prevent its spreading have proven unsuccessful. Mrs. Harrison's Condition.

THIRD PARTY QUARTETTE. -

Weaver, Field, Page and Mrs, Lense at Old Market Hell Monday Night. A handbill that was a wretched specimen of printing was circulatel yester-day, reading: Hear All Sides. Generals Weaver and Field and Mrs. Lease,

"Queen Mary of the West,"
Will Address the Public at Old Market

Hall Monday Night, October 3d, at 8 o'clock

Monday Night, October 3d, at 8 o clock sharp.

Major Mann Page will preside. Ladies especially invited. Music by the Band.

So at last the Third party candidates will be heard in Richmond, and a large crowd will hear them. They will draw just as a circus or minstrel parade will draw. In the crowd will be many, many Democrats, drawn there by curiosity, to hear what the vituporative, enmany Democrats, drawn there by curriosity, to hear what the vituperative, ensanguined shirt-flopper, General Weaver, will have to say, drawn there by curriosity to hear what Quarturnaster Field will have to say. And many of them will stay to hear the maiden efforts of Mrs. Lease, whom the hand-bill rather indefinitely calls the "Queen Mary of the West."

It is safe to say that no ladies of Rich-It is safe to say that no ladies of Mchamond will grace the hall with their practice, the condition of the hand, says the hand bill. I wonder what the hand will play? Will they accompany the great quariette of Lease, Weaver, Field and Page as they sing "Listen to my Tale of Woe?" That well make a hit. Or they neight pley what the variety peo-ple call "sneak" music, while Major Page inquires, sotto voca, of the "Queen Mary of the West": "Mary, Mary quite contrary, how does your garden grow?

Then Generals (?) Weaver and Field might give an imitation of the President and Vice-President walking up to take the onth of office, while the band plays

"Comrades."
Then Mrs. Lease and Major Mann Page can fall in behind them, and the band can blow their brains out with "Little Annie Hooney." Altogether, the occasion promises to be entertaining, and The Times men will be there to tell its readers what was said and done the next
